- triangle Sveti Vrac-Kyustendil-Breznik, under the command of the Soviet General Vladimirov.

- 25X1A 2. On [REDACTED] one of the six Soviet divisions, which until that date had been in Hungary and Rumania, was moved to Bulgaria. Reportedly, this division is 214 Armored Division.
3. The Soviet 90 Armored Division is now in the Baja-Szeged sector of Hungary while 211 Armored Division is near the intersection of the Hungarian, Rumanian, and Yugoslav borders.
4. Competent Yugoslav military authorities do not expect any intervention against Yugoslavia from the above-mentioned troops. It is considered that these troops have been moved to the sectors in question in order to boost the low morale of the Bulgarian, Rumanian, and Hungarian units, in case of action.
